Becky Rasmason	August 1, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 My dog is happy to be dropped off there. He runs to the door.
Bonnie D. MacEvoy	August 1, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 The hours are perfect for me, the staff is friendly, and my dog seems happy to return there. It is so nice to go to work and know he is well-cared for. I can check online to watch him any time. Thank you!
Jamie &amp; John Paul Hunt	August 1, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Dogs hanging out together. Flexibility with people's schedules by being open early and late. No cancellation fee.
Jennifer &amp; Wes Shirley	August 1, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Other than boarding &amp; day care, I haven't used any other services. Of course, I do like that you bath the dog after a certain # of days boarding!
Donna Bryant	July 29, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 everything
Cynthia Skipper	July 28, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 I love your business hours which are early enough and late enough to accommodate demanding schedules! Since my travel schedule can occur with abbreviated timelines, it's nice to be able to drop my dog off with only a couple of days notice. Being able to go online and view the activity rooms and see my little one trotting around happily is priceless! The staff is ALWAYS pleasant, and it is clear to see that they truly love all the furry friends they are entrusted to watch over on a daily basis! This is by far the best dog care facility on the planet! Camp Bow Wow ROCKS!
Leslie &amp; Michael Lee	July 28, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Everything, but mainly the scheduled nap times, the fact that there is a schedule and routine, that the sleeping area is air conditioned and clean, and the fact that there is always a person in with the dogs. The human touch is very important to me, as my dog loves people more than other dogs.
Michael &amp; Judy Amsler	July 28, 2011 - Rating: 8/10 Keep the owners always up front to greet customers. They're friendly and professional.
Julie Noar	July 28, 2011 - Rating: 10/10

	Good location, nice facilities, great staff, and the dogs seem happy and adjusted. I especially like the ability to see/watch the dogs on the internet while we're traveling.
Bill And Carole Somma	July 27, 2011 - Rating: 9/10 cameras, extended hours for pick up and drop off, friendly staff.
Mac/Margery Marshall/Wolf	July 27, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Friendly, clean, and getting to see one's pup behind the scenes is reassuring.
Michael Petroff	July 25, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Convenient, and close to home. I especially like the doggie cams; it's nice to be able to see my pet,

Marcia And Kim Mcfarland	July 22, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Everyone was so friendly to me and my Boston. I am so happy to have a nice, safe and clean place to let our "Bell" be a happy dog. We left with not only a certificate of approval and diploma but gifts! That was a pleasant surprise. We booked a spot right then for her vacation. Thank you.
Kate McCurdy	July 22, 2011 - Rating: 9/10 Your employees were very friendly. My dog seemed unstressed after his day at camp.
Norma Tomkinson	July 21, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Convenient location and my dogs like going to Camp.
Jessica Milleman	July 21, 2011 - Rating: 6/10 I was pleased with the personal attention my dog received while playing all day at camp. I'm a little hesitant to recommend and on the fence about returning only because the day after Roxanne's visit she had signs of an eye infection. After taking her to the vet it was determined that yes, she had an infection and needed eye drops to cure it up. Now I understand this can happen anywhere and it's no different then kids going off to school, they're going to encounter new germs. I would love for Roxanne to go and play regularly at camp but I don't want to worry about another vet visit or bill. I'm just hoping not to have to encounter another infection cause I would love to bring her back.

Ruth And Ellen Gergus	July 14, 2011 - Rating: 7/10 I am very satisfied with the care my dog receives. My only concern is that both times we boarded our dog at bow wow she has come back home with an eye infection.
Ashley Steffensen	July 14, 2011 - Rating: 7/10 The webcams are great but maybe have an option to have a login and password and be able to view your dog while it's in its cage.

Jessica Andrews-Kunst	July 14, 2011 - Rating: 7/10 I really like Camp Bow Wow and it is easy for me to take my dog there. I did not know of the neutering policy, my puppy is 10 months old. Apparently my dog was trying to mount other dogs. I wish they would have just called me, rather than putting him in a kennel for the majority of the day. He hates the kennel and I ended up paying for what was supposed to be 1/2 which should have been 414.50; but they charged me $20.00 instead. I could have left him in the backyard for free. MY dog really needs to be socialized and that's the main reason i bring him there. The crew is very friendly helpful an often times remembers my dogs name when we walk in. I really like that. This was just an experience that I wish has handled differently. A call would have resolved my frustration.that's all. Over all they are great. Clean, friendly people, set up with internet viewing (so cool) and very professional....I will of course return, but I will be more vocal about my concerns.
Jo Lesniak	July 13, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 I was very impressed with Lugina and the facility. Very accommodating and client friendly. Shiloh got a certificate and toy. The CAM is a great idea. It was clean and the staff seemed friendly and professional. I am so happy to find such a fine place for our dog. It is a good feeling to know you do not have to worry when you leave your pet at such a fine establishment. Kudos to you! Jo and Les Lesniak
Julie Raven	July 11, 2011 - Rating: 10/10

	I love the indoor/outdoor yard, and the fact that there is a human camp counselor around and the video cam for us nervous mom's. I love that Meili loves to go and always enjoys going and doesn't fuss about me leaving her there. I recently used the overnight camp when I got married, and it was wonderful to know that she had puppy friends during the day and a roomy den at night instead of a tiny kennel cage and of course, temperature controlled which is a big issue with pugs.
Paul And Sue Lovelace	July 10, 2011 - Rating: 9/10 So far, so good!
Karen Holtman	July 8, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 I've been bringing my dog to Camp BowWow for the past 10 months. She usually goes once a week but for two months, she went daily when we were in the middle of a move. So we've spent quite a lot of time here. When I leave Maya in the competent and compassionate hands of the staff in the Santa Rosa facility, I know she will be safe and happy. Her tail is always wagging when I drop her off and again when I pick her up. She's so exhausted that she sleeps the whole way home. She is one happy dog and loves playing with her friends there. I feel fortunate to have this wonderful place for her. Thank you to everyone there. Sincerely, Karen Holtman
Sharon Spratling	July 8, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 I know that my dog is in a safe environment and can be monitored while she's getting to run with her pack!

Lynnette McMahon	June 30, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 I like the idea that the dogs get to play all day and the staff seems like they really like my dogs! Please give thought to having daycare on Saturdays. Thank You
Suzanne Sheridan	June 30, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 The good care and courteous staff. My dog has fun there and doesn't come home starving or dying of thirst.
Patty Ann Foley	June 30, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 All of the workers are always friendly and great with my dog, Beau. Beau loves it at Camp Bow Wow and when we are on the way to Camp Bow Wow, he knows the route and gets more and more excited. I tell him he is going to see his friends and he is so happy to arrive and can't wait to get inside. I recommend you to my friends and co-workers and anyone talking about their dogs daycare. I appreciate the genuine kindness my dog receives at Camp Bow Wow. Thank you. Patty F.

Susan Hanks	June 23, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Everyone there loves dogs and treats them with so much love. I like the new times on the week-end so my little Stella has more playtime with the other "Campers". I really like the ability for Stella to play indoors and outdoors and the fact she is not sitting in a crate all day long. The best day for both Stella and I was when I discovered Camp. I have recommended to several friends and they are returning customers also. Keep up the good work and thank you for the additional week-end hours.

Jeanne Specht	June 23, 2011 - Rating: 9/10 My active little terrier mix comes home happy and tired. The best recommendation comes from the fact that once we are in the parking lot at Camp Bow Wow, he is very excited and can't wait to get inside! I also like the iPhone app with live cams so I can see him playing and having a good time while I am working.
Stan Pickell	June 19, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Adaptability to each dog's tempermant. Friendly staff

Meridith Goodrow	June 17, 2011 - Rating: 8/10 Teach then not to jump up on humans! or mount other dogs if possible.  Mine has these bad habits, your help would be wonderful.  Buddy will be staying wit you next weekend June 25th 26th, 27th returning on tuesday the 28th for pick up. A freshen up would be appreciated in the afternoon before arrival. He has really enjoyed himself it seems.
Karen Field	June 17, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 I like the friendliness of the people at Bow Wow to me and to my puppy and I like being able to "watch" her on my cell phone when I am away. I feel very confident that she is being well cared for when she is at camp.
Joe &amp; Linda Cannefax	June 17, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Im happy to send my puppy to camp, I feel that the staff will take good care of him when I need to be away.I have told my friends about youj and will continue to do so. I am pleased that care was taken to make sure we had all the needed shots that assures me that he will be safe away from me.
Renee Cheal	June 17, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Generally the entire concept is very good. Much better than simply keeping each dog in a separate small cage. The people that work there are all serious dog lovers and treat them accordingly.

Jay &amp; Kathi West	June 16, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 We love being able to watch our dogs play on the camper cams and coming home to freshly bathed and happy dogs. It's also a huge plus that the folks at Camp Bow-Wow accommodate our dogs' special diet!
Pamela Wilford	June 14, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 ease of drop off pick up you bathe my dogs on departure date much appreciated. They come home happy
Bonnie Carman	June 14, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 staff was very friendly and was really good with my puppy. I felt good leaving and it was my first time leaving him. I liked that I could pick him up as late as seven. Thanks camp bow wow!
Vicki Lockner	June 12, 2011 - Rating: 9/10 Friendliness of staff. My dog doesn't get upset about going there.
Norman &amp; Marie Jack	June 11, 2011 - Rating: 9/10 Camp Bow Wow is the best home away from home for our Sidney when he needs a fun place to stay while we are away on vacation. He happily goes to camp and is always happy and tired when he comes home. I like it specially when he has a nice shampoo and is brushed so handsomely when we pick him up.
Pat Schaefer	June 11, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Our dog was totally engaged, happy and active while we were away from home. It made us feel good to know that she was having a vacation too!

Rebecca Althoff	May 31, 2011 - Rating: 7/10 I have lost 3 dog collars, one for a different visit. Last time my dog came home with a significant laceration over his eye. It did not required stitches, but was problematic because he needed treatment for a minor infection. I just wish someone would have mentioned it to me, unfortunately someone else picked up the dog for me and did not know that the dog did not already have the cut. I understand dogs play rough, I am not concerned that it happened, I just am concerned that no one notified me.

I understand that things happen &amp; Cooper can be a little pest sometimes to other dogs but I feel like I should have been called if he was misbehaving. I would have come &amp; picked him up right away. I defiantly should have been called right after he got injured. I shouldn't have found out because my mom call to see why she didn't see him on the cameras for an hour. It was more than a scratch on his back, it was a slightly torn open puncture that cost me $150.00 at the vet! I would also suggest calling your customers after something like this happens to see how their dog is. It shows your concerned &amp; care.

Laura/David Salo/Long	May 24, 2011 - Rating: 6/10  We thought everyone at Camp Bow Wow was very caring and aware. We had a great first impression. Our plan was to use Camp Bow Wow for day care as well as for weekends away but we dropped our dog off for daycare and when we picked her up she smelled so awful, we immediately took her to the self serve dog wash. There we encountered another dog washer who's dog at spent time at Camp Bow Wow and smelled horrible. Our dog has gone to day care at Anderson Acres and never smelled so foul like she did from CBW. We were going to call and ask for an explanation but felt like we would not get an honest response. Sorry.

Lisa Cobb	March 30, 2011 - Rating: 8/10 My dog gets exercise and she has fun. She loves it there and everyone is really nice and very flexible about last-minute reservations. It's an excellent setup for my dog and me. Downsides though are the smell of the place, I think it's disinfectant, and how it stays on her, and staff willingness to let her jump on them. She doesn't jump on me, and as Bow Wow staff are the bulk of other humans she sees, it messes with my training of her.

This is because she's learned that if I get dressed in my work clothes (as opposed to my cycling clothes) I am driving to work and she is more than likely going to camp that day. Your CamperCams are great (but distracting!). Scott And Kathee Eberhart	February 22, 2011 - Rating: 7/10  My doggy, lab, 3-4 days following coming home from camp bow wow now has diarrhea. It's clearing with a rice and chicken diet and it may be due to letting him eat your food instead of his regular Eukanuba diet. 	I like how you make it very comfortable to reserve reservations. Everyone is always very pleasant. You feel good about leaving your dog there. The fact that you can watch your dog play and see how there doing while on vacation. That you walk away with a good feeling that you dog is being taken care of the right way.

Brandy Bolt	January 26, 2011 - Rating: 8/10 Would like to see more of a real 'outdoor' environment, real grass, larger dog run but it is what it is and we knew that coming in. Mike &amp; Sheri Haiman	January 23, 2011 - Rating: 10/10  Camp Bow Wow provides a very dog centered environment where dogs can socialize, play, eat, and sleep. We feel very comfortable leaving our dog while we are on vacation or leaving town for the day. We know she will be cared for by a staff who clearly love not only their dogs, but also their job.

Clean, friendly staff, supervised play, convenient, and my dog, Sukie, absolutely loves Camp Bow Wow. She even knows the turn in the road and cries and wags her tail before we get to Camp Bow Wow. She has made many friends there. Excellent way to get your dog socialized with other dogs and people at an early age.

Greg/Meghan Shepard/Williams	January 13, 2011 - Rating: 10/10 Our 4 year old puggle, Murphy, absolutely LOVES camp bow wow in Santa Rosa CA. Everyone there is very kind and professional. They make us feel very comfortable leaving him there for several days at a time. We are able to check in on him via webcams which assures us he's playing, being social, happy and safe. He always come home happy but exhausted from all the playing. Jeff Baldwin	January 10, 2011 - Rating: 8/10 I'm not sure how to respond. I like that the dogs get to play; however, when I picked up Miles he was not well - he wouldn't eat for several days. After a trip to the vets ($280) and the diagnosis that nothing serious was wrong - probably picked up giardia or something else - and after some boiled chicken and rice he is fine. I have no doubt about the cleanliness of your facility - it is always spotless. I guess the chance of picking up a bug is worth the risk given that he gets to play most of the day.

Joan E Johnson	January 7, 2011 - Rating: 9/10 I have already recommended Camp Bow Bow a few times over at the dog park and mention it to my friends on a regular basis. If the other people who bring their pets over to Camp Bow Bow are like me, I consider my dog an important part of my life. I would not leave him off for his "Play Day" if I didn't think he felt comfortable being there. He is well taken care of, the facilities are kept clean and safe, and the operators and other workers are competent in providing the type of service I was looking for. Being friendly doesn't hurt either. All I have to do is to say to Henry is, "Camp Bow Bow" and his eyes light up and he is ready to go!

Linda &amp; Brad Tavis	December 22, 2010 - Rating: 0/10

	We were extremely disappointed and disturbed with the condition of our dog Roxy, when we picked her up after a three day stay. First, she was filthy, she was wet, actually completely soaked and covered in dirt. BUT, the most concerning was she had a large (5 inch in diameter) sore under her right leg. It was festering, hot and had not been attended to OR even mentioned to us. Appalling! I left a message that evening asking about what happened, expressed my concerns and requested a call back. Never recieved even a return phone call. NO I WILL NOT RECOMMEND OR RETURN.

Barbara &amp; Jeff Ireland	December 17, 2010 - Rating: 6/10 Dusty (a chocolate lab) has been to Camp Bow Wow several times and had a great time. This past time, however, she seemed, "down" or sick after we got her home. I realize that it had been raining the last two days of her visit, but she was very chilled, and stayed under a blanket for several hours to warm up. Maybe she should have been allowed back inside for awhile to dry off. Also, about 3 days after she came home she developed diarrhea. That was 6 days ago. She's lost 5 pounds. The vet has her on antibiotics, so hopefully it will clear up soon. (The visit was $125.00). I don't know what happened different this time, but I am disappointed in Dusty's visit. I await your response. Thank you. Barbara Ireland

We've been to several doggy daycares and kennels in the the past so I know to expect that my dog will come home smelling less than perfect. I've also learned that the odor on my dog depends on the thoroughness of the facility's constant cleaning. I will continue to bring my dog to Camp Bow Wow because the staff is nice, friendly, accomodating and appear to love dogs. My dog also enjoys going and benefits from the socialization. Shayna Billings	November 10, 2010 - Rating: 2/10 The whole reason we were attracted to Camp Bob Wow was the Petcam. I did mention it would be fun to watch my dog on my iphone. No one told me I needed to buy an application to do so. First, if we pay for the camp we shouldn't have to pay for the app. But I would have been willing to do that IF ANYONE HAD BOTHERED TO TELL ME I NEEDED AN APP - instead, I wasted 90 minutes of my vacation weekend at various time trying to figure out how to follow your website directions and download java, which didn't work - and i never got to see our dog. What a waste of time and energy and a huge disappoiment. You promote a great feature, then don't leave any info on your website or tell your clients how to access it! I feel cheated.

	I liked that the dogs can be inside or outside. That they get a choice and are not forced to be outside all day, which was definitely a deciding factor when I was choosing where to have my dog, puggie, stay when I was leaving for New York. Puggie is a pug and she can not be outside when it is hot- ten minutes max. So, I was relieved, since I was going to be in New York during the summer, that puggie would be able to go inside when she got too hot. I also liked that large and small dogs play separately. And that they eat alone in their kennel. The lady that worked the front desk was so friendly. I really trust her and trust any place that she works at. Although everyone there seemed nice. I will be headed back to New York this winter and I plan on bringing Puggie back to camp.

Brendan Scanian	October 18, 2010 - Rating: 10/10 We like the concept of dog care that is not the traditional 'put them in a kennel'. Our dog is a puppy, and he wants to run around, play, and socialize with other dogs. Camp Bow Wow provides that opportunity in a safe and clean environment. Your rates are reasonable. Your facility is welcoming, and our Sammy is always excited to go in. The staff is very nice and helpful. Luigiana, (hope I spelled that right), is great! She makes us feel like we are leaving Sammy with a friend, and she always tells us what he did when we come to pick him up. (Thank you Luigiana!)

She told me about how one of the few times she was able to view Chester, she couldn't see him because he was playing in one of the blind spots of the cameras. So she called and requested that you put him in front of the camera so she could see him, and you guys did just that. She can't stop talking about that. Impressive.

Virginia &amp; Scott Kaderabek	September 24, 2010 - Rating: 10/10 Everything. The staff at CBW is very tuned in to the needs of the "campers." Even with our difficult dog, Jette, everyone at CBW tried his or her best to help and make things work out. Unfortunately, because of Jette's personality, he could not be a camper any longer at CBW. During Jette's initial visits, before his aggressive behavior surfaced, he had a great time. We are grateful for the care that Jette received when he was there, and would highly recommend (and have recommended) CBW to our friends with furry "children."

	I appreciate friendly service from the owners and staff. I appreciate the cleanliness. What is outstanding about the Camp Bow Wow facilities is that they are quite spacious, the animals can be out....that they are divided by large and small dogs, and especially the Web Cam....We had to leave our dog here, but spent the weekend right in Santa Rosa, so we still enjoyed looking at the web cam to see 'what was up'....we did that in town and also clear around the world from Germany when on another trip....the web cam is fantastic....love camp bow wow...thanks!

Luigina is awesome - always so kind and on top of things even when there is a lot going on. Prices are reasonable and I find value in the money I'm spending. I feel like my dog is really taken care of and I never worry. I never even really check the webcam but I like that it's there if I want to check in. I started coming because it was the only DDC even remotely on my commute, but I continue to come because I really like your operation and my dog sincerely looks forward to coming! I say "wanna go to camp?" and she gets this silly look on her face and starts heading for the door! The one piece of constructive criticism I can offer is to have cubbies or something more organized for our dogs' items. A couple times I have come and the wrong collar or leash was given back to me. Other than that, great job team!

I also like the Camper Cams, I check on her several times a day when I'm away. I like the fact when I call the front desk knows exactly who Willow is, what her needs are, and that all her shots are up to date. This give me peace of mind that all the dogs Willow is playing with are healthy and up to date with their Vets. also. I wouldn't even consider getting a house sitter for Willow or leaving her anywhere else. Right now...Camp Bow Wow is the ONLY place I would leave my dog.

Linda Rochester	August 8, 2010 - Rating: 10/10 I love the personalized service that allows our dogs to live almost as if they were at home. The open play areas are the most important aspect for us. We could not leave our beloved dogs somewhere that requires they stay in crates for most of the day with only an hour or two of play time. I could not enjoy my time away if that were the case. I also love that we can use the internet to check in on them. Additional peace of mind.

Tom And Annalee Sparrowe	July 17, 2010 - Rating: 3/10 We are sure that our pup had a wonderful time because she loves to play with other dogs. But, she developed a bad case of kennel cough after her stay at your facility. We ended up taking her to our vet and he asked us if we had her boarded lately. We said that she stayed the weekend at Camp Bow Wow. He was not suprised and indicated that your place has a reputation for this problem and referred another place that does not have a reputation for this problem. We walked out of there $50 less in our account. So with that, it is very unlikely that we will be boarding our dog again at your place.
Betty Kunakov	July 15, 2010 - Rating: 10/10 The gals that are in charge of the dogs are very caring.  I like the fact that the large dogs and small dogs are separate.  I can leave my dog and know that she is well taken care of. She loves every minute of her time at Camp Bow Wow.
Matthew Rust	July 14, 2010 - Rating: 6/10 The dog was bathed the morning of the pick up, yet it smelled horribly, the dog has never smelled so bad, it required another bath. The dogs hair was also thinned out in several places.

Kim Finch	June 25, 2010 - Rating: 10/10 I love the oppportunity for my dogs to socialize. I plan on purchasing the daycare package so they can continue to play with other dogs. Camp Bow Wow is so much fun for the dogs and both my golden retriever and sammy were nice and tired when they came home. I love the fact that they can play in the water and go in and out of the air conditioning when it's hot. Great place, I'm so happy I found it!
Christie Garcia	June 25, 2010 - Rating: 10/10 Camp Bow Wow is very welcoming. I have used two different locations and they were both fantastic. The second I walked through the door I knew my pet would be well taken care of. There are always family dogs in the lobby who greet the guests. The facilities are very clean and pet friendly. My dog was a very happy camper each time I picked him up.

Jillian &amp; Paul Higgins &amp; Graham	June 9, 2010 - Rating: 6/10 I left a bag of treats for my dog for her 6 day stay. When I returned to pick her up, the bag was still full and it was apparent that she hadn't been given any. The webcams were very spotty and the hi-resolution cam didn't work at all, this was tried on multiple computers using various web browsers. Justine came back clean and she did not seem traumatized. The few times that we were able to access the webcams, she appeared happy and looked after.
